HAW1 GROUP PROJECT

Leadership in Project Development and Team Coordination

As the elected group leader for a team of five tasked with developing a website and mobile application for a fictional college institution, I successfully guided our project to an average final mark of 92%. I assigned roles and tasks to each member, ensuring efficient utilization of individual strengths. We collaborated on Discord for problem-solving and utilized WhatsApp for task coordination and real-time communication. I organized and coordinated a group presentation, boosting my team members' confidence and ensuring a successful delivery. Our dedication and teamwork resulted in a highly successful project.
